Welcome! Our Guild's purpose is to promote appreciation and interest in quilting, and to provide educational opportunities. Guild meetings are ordinarily, on the first Saturday morning of each month, from 9:30am to Noon.

Membership is open to anyone interested in quilting, whether you know how to quilt or not. If you don't know how to quilt & would like to learn how check out our Resources page.

Be our guest once before joining. Membership form and payment is available online at <https://colonialpiecemakers.com/joinrenew-membership/>

Sunshine Report

A Get Well card to Catherine Swetnam. A Thank you card for donation to Kim Zminkowski. Thinking of you cards to Fran Cope and several to Lorraine Mooney. THANK YOU cards to Maggie McCain, Corrine Vance and Barbara Linde for their assistance at Road to Virginia.

If you know of anyone who needs a card for any reason, let Peggy Natoli Duffy know.

CPQG or the Board will never email or text you to tell you to donate money to the Guild. Beware of scammers using this ploy.

Welcome your new Board of Officers and be sure to thank them for taking on the job of keeping the guild running. You will find their contact information on page 3 of the newsletter.

One board position remains open! We need a publicity person to post info and pictures on social media. Please contact board@colonialpiecemakers.com if you are interested. You can even share the duties with a friend.

Get your creative spirit going. Next year's challenges will be here before you know it. We'll have 2027 challenges for the Mancuso Mid-Atlantic Quilt shown Hampton and Road2VA in Richmond.

MAQF challenge: Mystery fabric. Interested participants will pick up a brown paper bag with a quarter yard of fabric, pulled from the guild's stash, at the September meeting. Written instructions will be included. Quilts must be 24 inches and incorporate the "mystery" fabric. Quilts will be due at the February 2027 meeting.

CPQG is on Facebook with lots of information, photos of quilts, activities, workshops, and other fun information. Join the Colonial Piecemakers Quilt Guild group to keep up with our current events.
